

Deliberate Wealth LLC is a registered investment adviser that only conducts business in jurisdictions where it is properly registered, or is excluded or exempted from registration requirements. Registration is not an endorsement of the firm by securities regulators and does not mean the adviser has achieved a specific level of skill or ability. The firm is not engaged in the practice of law or accounting.

The information presented is believed to be factual and up-to-date, but we do not guarantee its accuracy and it should not be regarded as a complete analysis of any topics discussed. All investments and investment strategies have the potential for profit or loss. A professional adviser should be consulted before making any investment decisions. All expressions of opinion reflect the judgment of the authors as of the date of the post and are subject to change. We are not responsible for comments made by third parties. Content should not be viewed as an offer to buy or sell any of the securities mentioned, as personalized financial advice, or as legal or tax advice. You should always consult an attorney or tax professional regarding your specific legal or tax situation.

Different types of investments involve higher and lower levels of risk. There is no guarantee that a specific investment or strategy will be suitable or profitable for an investor's portfolio. There are no assurances that a portfolio will match or exceed a specific benchmark. Insurance guarantees are subject to the claims-paying ability of the issuing insurance company.

Social Security, Medicare, Internal Revenue Service and other state and Federal rules and regulations are subject to change at any time. Always consult with your local Social Security office before acting upon any information provided herein that pertains to Social Security and/or Medicare. We are not endorsed by or affiliated with the Social Security Administration, Medicare, a state's Division of Retirement, a state's Board of Administration, or any U.S. Federal or state government agency.

Case studies are purely hypothetical and are used to illustrate the types of financial issues faced by actual clients. These case studies do not represent the experience of any specific advisory client. Each client's situation is different, and their goals may not always be achieved. It is unknown if actual clients approve of our services. Content may be developed with the assistance of artificial intelligence.
